

POCKETMONSTERS FROM GOODIES OF DESIRE

June 13, 2011

These pocket monsters from Goodies of Desire are just brilliant. They fit in a child's hand, and in their pockets, and can be taken everywhere as they are so easy to carry around. Both Pim (4) and Sara (6) have fallen completely in love with their pocket monsters. They have breakfast with them, take them to school (where they secretly hide in their pockets), and sleep with them. Cute!

I'm a big fan of the Goodies of Desire products - Andrea is super creative, and she comes up with the sweetest ideas. And everything is made with the utmost care and detail! (I wrote about the First Aid Elephant before, which is still used for every owie in our house!)
